PRINCIPLES AND OBJECTS

OF THE

BROOKLYN ASSOCIATION

For Improving the Condition of the Poor.

For the Information of Members and the Public.

We beg leave to call special attention to the following :

Let it be distinctly understood that this Association is not—in its extended sense—public or general; that is, it does not belong to the public at large, but to those who annually subscribe to its funds, and such only have a right to send applicants.

This Association is organized for a special purpose, and its labors are specific. It seeks to do collectively just what every benevolent heart desires to do individually, viz. : to elevate the moral and physical condition of the worthy poor, and, as far as possible, relieve their necessities.

The following is an abstract of the fundamental rules by which the work of this Association is governed :

1st.—To give relief only after a personal investigation of each case, either by visitation or thorough inquiry.

2d.—To give only articles immediately necessary, and least susceptible of abuse.

3d.—To give assistance at the right moment,—not to prolong it, but to restrict and modify relief according to the necessity which calls for it.

TEMPERANCE

4th.—To require from every one who receives aid abstinence from all intoxicating drinks as a beverage; of such as have children of a proper age that they be kept at school, unless unavoidable circumstances prevent; and that those of suitable age be apprenticed to some trade or sent to service. The design being to make the poor a party to their own improvement and elevation. The wilful violation or disregard of this rule will debar the applicant from further relief.

RECENT EMIGRANTS.

5th.—To give no relief to recent emigrants, except perhaps in urgent cases for once, or until they can be referred to the Commissioners of Emigration, when the responsibility of this Association towards them shall cease; the reason of this rule being that the Commissioners of Emigration are obliged by law to care for such persons if needy during five years after their arrival, and are provided with means for this very purpose;—consequently, every dollar expended on such cases by this Association would be an improper appropriation of funds intrusted to it for other objects.

THE PERMANENTLY DEPENDENT.

6th.—To give no aid to persons who from infirmity, imbecility, old age or any other cause, are likely to continue unable to earn their own support, and consequently to become permanently dependent, except in extreme cases for once or twice, or until they can be referred to the proper authorities for permanent relief. The reason of this rule is, that the permanently dependent are not regarded as proper subjects for this Association, as we have no permanent fund; and because if these should continue to be relieved, the entire funds of the Association would soon be exhausted in the support of a PERMANENT LIST; and our primary object, “The elevation of the moral and physical condition of the Poor,” be defeated. Such persons should become an in-door public charge, which is far better for them than to rely upon incidental and uncertain relief.

PERSISTENT ALMS SEEKERS.

7th.—To discontinue relieving all who manifest a purpose to depend on alms rather than on their own exertions for support. The maintenance of such is incompatible with the objects of this Association, because such persons soon become so debased by long continued gratuitous relief that there is no hope of inciting them to self-support, and to aid them would be to encourage vice and indolence and further a great social evil.

By refusing aid to the persons described, none are necessarily left to suffer. Even those who obstinately persist in their vicious course, and cannot be relieved by this charity without injury to themselves and the community, still have a resource in the legal relief to which they are referred, so that all are cared for.

The Association is not intended to supersede existing charities, but as far as practicable to supplement them and make them available to those for whom they are designed.

It will be obvious to all that this Association is governed by such humane and economical considerations as have most important moral and social bearings on the individuals concerned, and the public at large—our whole aim is to help those who will strive to help themselves.

	$735 40

The amount paid into the Treasury of the Association falls short of that of last year by $293.19.

No "second call" or "special appeal" to the public was made in behalf of the treasury. To the patient, efficient labors of the voluntary solicitors of the Association, at a period of great commercial stagnation and embarrassment, we are indebted for a result exceeding our anticipations at the opening of the season.

Uncommonly pleasant and equable weather ruled throughout the winter months, yet no diminution of want or of the usual urgent calls for relief, seems to have resulted therefrom. An increased number of those not accustomed or prone to look to this or any other charitable institution for help, were, on the contrary, compelled by their necessities to look to us for food, shelter and clothing. The number of unemployed clerks, porters, mechanics, seamstresses, etc., seems to have been largely in excess of any recent period.

The recipients of your charity consisted of nearly four thousand families, embracing an aggregate of over twelve thousand two hundred persons. Eight thousand visits or separate distributions were made.

Though the number of families assisted was not quite so large, yet the expenditures reached an amount falling but little short of that of last year. This is explained by the fact that, generally, a better class of families than usual being applicants, we assisted them more liberally; whilst, on the other hand, a refusal to respond to the calls of many, to whose annual appearance we have long been accustomed, does not appear to have fully covered this extra expenditure.

Further comment upon the expenditures of the Association seems unnecessary. The foregoing statement of disbursements epitomizes its financial operations and policy, and as the books of the Association are always open to such of its members as care to examine them, whether for information or matter of criticism, we pass to other subjects claiming remark.

The thanks of the Association are due to the "Brooklyn and Long Island Christian Commission," for another transfer to our treasury of five hundred dollars, under the condition of its exclusive application to the relief of the families of soldiers; also to E. H. Craige, Esq., of the "Wheeler & Wilson" Company for the gift of one hundred dollars in sewing machines; to the Brooklyn and Citizens' Gas Light Companies for reductions of the price of coke; and to the Press generally for gratuitous publication of our monthly reports and notices.

From the very nature of the case, year after year, the same general statements must be embodied, and the same subjects brought up for comment and discussion in the Annual Report. Of consequence, a monotonous if not dreary repetition has become one of its features, and one which we would gladly make less prominent in this by omitting a frequently recurring topic—the complaints of members against the management of the Association in the matter of distributions.

But the Annual Statement of the General Agent, who, more than any other officer stands as the representative of the Association before the public, exhibits him as having been again brought under the cross-fire of those who blame him for doing nothing, and those who blame him for doing too much.

From continuously making the crucial experiment of serving two masters, there seems to be no remission for this functionary. Held to a strict responsibility by the Board of Managers on the one hand, he is, on the other, assumed to be accountable, to a certain extent, at least, to the members of the Association—for, by our organic law, all are members who contribute annually to its funds. Now it sometimes happens that members send to the Association for relief individuals whom the General Agent either knows, or, on investigation, finds to be unworthy of its aid, and belonging to a class which the Association has never been in the habit of relieving, and was never intended to relieve. Of course such applicants are disappointed, and report the fact, in their own way, to those that sent them; and then the General Agent receives angry visitors or angry notes, asserting the good character and entire worthiness of the persons to whom he has denied the charity demanded.

That the charitable and humane are often deceived by the veteran beggars of our streets, is no matter for wonder. Their circumstantial plausible narrations, are well calculated not only to enlist the sympathy of the benevolent, but to deceive even “the very elect”; for if the General Agent himself, a skilled detective in mendicant shams, is not exempt from an occasional swindle at their hands, how shall the inexperienced and unwary escape?

The charities of the Association must rest in the discretion of the General Agent and his subordinates, for the most part. We have no choice in the matter. He is employed to dispense them, and employed because the Board of Managers have confidence in his sagacity and integrity. That he should occasionally fall into error is a matter of course.

That now and then he should give offence, by discriminations such as we have alluded to, seems inevitable; but that he will be hereafter, as heretofore, unreasonably, unjustly and bitterly assailed, on account of such discriminations, is a foregone conclusion,—for to please all is simply an impossibility. Of this, however, we may be certain, that if sharp analysis and unsparing criticism of the acts and motives of the General Agent can avail to hold him to a high sense of responsibility, no further assurance of his zeal and assiduity in the execution of his trust can be reasonably demanded. Perpetual vivisection is his official doom.

We have given more space to the discussion of this matter than we should have done did it not seem to us that its importance to the interests of the Association can hardly be overrated. Wrong impressions arising from this and kindred sources, once entertained, however causelessly, are very apt to be widely discussed within a circle of friends and acquaintances, and thus a whole neighborhood may become imbued with distrust of the Association, and prejudiced alike against its management and its motives, and consequently withdraw from its support. Moreover the Board of Managers deem it their duty to make this statement in justice to a faithful and efficient officer. And now we hope this matter may be dismissed for a season.

Instability and insecurity are never-failing conditions of human life. In its ever-moving vicissitude no one stands assured of permanent position or abiding fortune. A striking illustration of this truism is found in the report of the General Agent, setting forth the fact, that while many who have been, in former years, the beneficiaries of the Association, are now among its supporters; on the other hand, and within the year just past, its help has been extended to several whose names were once not only on the list of its patrons but also on that of its officers. We read no homily from this text, neither use it to "point a moral." He who runneth may read the lesson, making his own commentary thereon.

Meanwhile the great problem, "what shall be done to improve, permanently, the condition of the poor?" remains without solution. One day that solution will surely come—but how? Certainly it concerns not the poor more than the rich. The former have nothing to lose but life, and often that is a burden, gladly laid down. Poverty is no more without a remedy, as a social condition, than slavery. It eats away vital tissues with less rapidity, perhaps, but it preys no less surely upon the life of the state. Nor is this a new question. In every civilized nation and in every age, from a period to which the memory of man runneth not to the contrary, the cry and cause of the poor have come up to the bar of individual and public conscience, praying judgment. The case has been often presented, with large and dreary circumstantiality, and we propose no restatement of it here. We have only room to add that the poverty which abounds in these two great cities of New York and Brooklyn, and the ignorance and crime which are its logical result are, by virtue of an inexorable law, pressing us forward, irresistably, to a fearful crisis. Who shall say to what hour that crisis is postponed?

No less a fund than that entrusted to the Association last year, for the relief of the destitute, will be needed during the coming winter. Doubtless twice that amount could be used to good purpose. But we propose no formal appeal to your charity or generosity. We take the liberty, only, of reminding you of this great duty, as one always enjoined upon the good citizen and the faithful servant of God.

The balance of the receipts were voluntarily forwarded, or were obtained by paid collectors.

N. B. In some streets and parts of wards not mentioned above collections were partially made, but not by voluntary solicitors. It is the intention, however, to publish the names of every contributor, and we hope the following list will be found perfect:

Donors for the year ending October 1, 1869.

THE following is a list of MEMBERS with the amounts contributed by each, for the past year. If not perfectly accurate, it is not for want of care at the office. Sometimes, however, the names are so illegibly written on collector's books, that it is almost impossible to make them out. There were a few mistakes in last year's report. All that were discovered, will be found corrected at the end of this list.

All mistakes or omissions will be corrected at the General Office, No. 162 Joralemon Street, where a permanent record is kept and always open for the inspection of members.
